Laura Briggs KC MCI Arb

Year of Call: 2001 Year of Silk: 2022

Practice Overview

Laura specialises in the law as it relates to children. She maintains a practice in public law cases and in disputes between private individuals, including those with an international element. She acts in cases involving allegations of sexual abuse, emotional abuse, non-accidental injury, fabricated induced illness and radicalisation. In the private law sphere, she represents parents and children in the most serious cases, involving domestic abuse, allegations of emotional harm, parental manipulation and issues relating to parental mental health.

Laura has practised in the Cayman Islands and has advised in proceedings in France and Jersey. She is a qualified arbitrator. In 2016 Laura was appointed a Recorder, sitting in family law on the South-Eastern circuit.

Laura has been recognised in 2024 Spear's 500 index as a top recommended family law barrister.

Children (Public Law)

Laura represents applicant Local Authorities, Respondent parents and Children's Guardians in care proceedings. She is well versed in child protection procedure within Local Authorities, including decision making pre-proceedings. She advises authorities on their policies and procedures as well as on the evidence in individual cases.

In fact-finding hearings, Laura deals with cases in which there is a dispute on the medical evidence and where court-appointed experts disagree. She defends parents, relatives, children and third parties when they are alleged to have caused harm to a child, including cases in which there are high volumes of digital material.

She has been involved in public law proceedings with an international element, particularly where children are placed abroad or are repatriated to this jurisdiction from war zones.

Notable cases include:

M (Children) [2019] EWCA Civ 1364

P-S [2018] EWCA Civ 1407
