Louise MacLynn KC

Year of Call: 2001 Year of Silk: 2023

Practice Overview

Louise is a specialist in the law relating to children and vulnerable adults. She has experience in all levels of court including the Supreme Court and is often instructed in cases involving particularly complex or unusual expert evidence. Louise's practice spans the full range of public law and private law litigation, including overlapping private and public law proceedings or cases with a parallel criminal case or investigation. Her cases often involve the most serious allegations of harm, including fatalities, sexual abuse and fabricated illness.

Louise is appointed to the Attorney General's special advocate panel and has been instructed as a special advocate in cases within and outside the family law field. She uses her broad experience to work collaboratively and strategically with those instructing her to achieve the best outcome for her clients.

Children (Public Law)

Louise has extensive experience within the public law arena, acting for local authorities, parents, children (including competent children) and other family members. She is regularly instructed in the most complex cases, dealing with issues such as:

- Serious non-accidental injury, including a recent case involving the deaths of two children;
- Sexual abuse including historical sexual abuse;
- Fabricated illness;
- Radicalisation;
- Female Genital Mutilation;
- Forced marriage and honour-based violence;
- Louise is regularly instructed in cases involving adoption, including where adoptive placements have broken down.

Louise also has experience of issues regarding disclosure and the involvement of the media, including PII issues and the use of special advocates.

Notable cases include the following:

LA v M & Ors [2024] EWHC 1336

An application in the High Court for a forced marriage protection order and protective orders under the inherent jurisdiction in relation to four children said to be at risk of forced marriage and significant harm.

Birmingham City Council v M & Ors [2023] EWHC 3312 (Fam)

A case in the High Court involving recent and older allegations of sexual abuse by a step-father of two step-daughters. Both children gave evidence and were cross-examined during the course of the hearing.

The London Borough of Merton v The Mother & Ors [2023] EWFC 220 (B)

A case where there was an application to instruct an expert with a view to establishing the cause of a child's death. The court refused the application, concluding that an expert was unlikely to provide greater clarity and that it ran the risk of de-railing the court's determination of the welfare best interests of the surviving sibling.

Redcar & Cleveland Borough Council v AB & Ors [2023] EWFC 139 (B)

A complex case involving allegations of fabricated and induced illness spanning several years.

SK v RO [2023] EWHC 2896 (Fam)

This case concerned whether a special advocate should be appointed on behalf of the father in a private law case where there were allegations of honour-based violence which could not be revealed to the father. Lieven J concluded that the appointment of a special advocate was necessary and also made a determination as to who should fund the special advocate in the circumstances.

R (Care Proceedings Joinder of Foster Carers) [2021] EWCA Civ 875

Appeal in relation to the extent to which foster carers should be permitted to participate in care proceedings relating to a child they are caring for

Wiltshire Council v M & Anor (gonorrhoeal infection in a child) [2021] EWFC B31 Unusual fact-finding hearing exploring the source of a gonorrhoeal infection in a three-year-old girl and consideration of the pool of potential perpetrators.

The Local Authority v Mother & Ors [2020] EWHC 1216 (Fam),

Fact-finding hearing concerning whether a 13-year-old boy died as a result of hanging or deliberate asphyxiation. Issues included the disclosure of covert recordings made by the police in the family home.

Re X (A Child) [2019] EWFC B57

Fact-finding hearing concerning the cause of death of a baby following previous care proceedings in relation to the same child which had been withdrawn.

Williams v London Borough of Hackney [2018] UKSC 37

Louise acted for the appellants in this important Supreme Court case regarding voluntary accommodation of children in foster care and the need for parental consent.

Hammoud v Al Zawawi [2018] EWHC 2956 (Fam)

Proceedings raising various jurisdictional issues as well as numerous welfare issues relating to children

Re B (A Child) [2018] All ER (D) 74 [2018] EWCA Civ 20

Matters to be taken into account in a placement order application where there is a known prospective adopter

Re W (A Child) (No 2) [2017] EWHC 917

Contested adoption proceedings where the parent was capable of meeting the child's needs but where the child had been placed with prospective adopters for 18 months

Re W (A Child) [2017] EWHC 829 (Fam)

Joinder of competent sibling to contested adoption proceedings

Re X, Y, Z (Disclosure to the Security Service) [2016] EWHC 2400(Fam)

Abduction of child to Spain within care proceedings

Re T (A Child) [2010] EWCA Civ 295

Appeal in respect of assessment

Children (Private Law)

Louise deals with a wide variety of private law issues in relation to children, including intractable child arrangements disputes. Louise has extensive experience of cases involving:

- Fact-finding hearings;
- Cases involving sexual abuse, including false allegations of sexual abuse;
- Relocation cases including internal and external relocation;
- Cases with international and jurisdictional issues;
- Surrogacy and cases involving the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008 as well as same-sex families.

Notable cases include:

SK v RO [2023] EWHC 2896 (Fam)

This case concerned whether a special advocate should be appointed on behalf of the father in a private law case where there were allegations of honour-based violence which could not be revealed to the father. Lieven J concluded that the appointment of a special advocate was necessary and also made a determination as to who should fund the special advocate in the circumstances.

P v Q & Ors [2024] EWFC 85 (B)

Knowles J determined an application for a declaration of parentage where there was a question as to how the provisions of sections 34 and 42 HFEA 2008 apply (if at all) in circumstances where there is a dispute as to whether the child was conceived via artificial insemination or natural insemination, whilst the biological mother was married to her wife.

A (A Child: Adoption Time Limits S44(3)) (Rev 1) [2020] EWHC 3296 (Fam)

Appeal regarding the issue of costs in a fact-finding hearing regarding allegations of domestic violence

Judicial Review & Administrative Law

Louise uses her experience of practice in the public law field to provide advice when there are issues regarding the exercise of local authority powers and functions.

She was recently involved in an appeal to the Supreme Court in respect of local authority responsibilities to voluntarily accommodated children and has dealt with several cases involving applications under the Human Rights Act.

Notable cases include:

Williams v London Borough of Hackney [2018] UKSC 37

International Family Law

Louise is often involved in cases involving the international movement of children, both in a public and private law context.

Notable cases include:

London Borough of Harrow v Rasul & Ors [2014] EWHC 3837 (Fam)

Abduction of a child to Spain within care proceedings

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

Louise has experience of acting on behalf of applicants and respondents in injunction applications, including where protection from honour-based violence is required.

Court of Protection

Louise's Court of Protection practice is primarily focused on welfare matters. She has been instructed in cases involving issues about deprivation of liberty, capacity to consent to sexual relations and marriage as well as issues over treatment, placement and contact.

Louise is instructed by both local authorities and family members. Louise is frequently instructed on behalf of the Official Solicitor.

Notable cases include:

Devon County Council v Kirk [2016] EWCA Civ 1221, [2016] WLR(D) 652, [2017] 4 WLR 36
