Louise Verroken-Jones

Year of Call: 2018

Practice Overview

Louise is building a broad practice across a range of chambers' specialisms, with a particular focus on financial provision on relationship breakdown and private law children disputes.

Louise has appeared at all levels up to and including the High Court and accepts instructions in all areas of family law. Louise is a busy junior, who is known for her compassionate manner, frank advice and robust advocacy.

Children (Private Law)

Louise is regularly instructed across the range of private children law. Her experience includes cases of intractable child arrangement cases, leave to remove applications, cases involving the most serious allegations of domestic abuse as well as other sensitive cases which require the consideration of reporting restrictions. Louise also has experience of on being instructed to act on behalf of the Children in cases.

Family Finance & Property

Louise has a particular interest in financial remedy disputes and regularly represents clients at all stages of financial remedy proceedings including applications for variation, enforcement and interim relief.

Her experience includes advice in cases involving financial provision for children under Schedule 1 and parties to a foreign divorce under Part III as well as in cases involving allegations of non-disclosure, analysis of company accounts, and jurisdictional disputes.

Louise is regularly instructed in private FDR and arbitrations, and welcomes instructions at all stages, whether in court and through NCDR.

Court of Protection

Louise undertakes Court of Protection work. Louise has previously been a committee member of the Court of Protection Bar Association.

Domestic Abuse & Injunctions

Louise regularly represents and advises in applications under the Family Law Act on behalf of both applicants and respondents.

International Family Law

Louise regularly acts in cases involving cross-jurisdictional legal issues. She has experience in relocation cases.

NCDR

Louise is regularly instructed in both private FDR and arbitrations (being able to act in both Finance and Children disputes, whether heard separately or together). Louise has a keen interest in the promotion of NCDR to effectively resolve disputes for her clients.
