Tahmina Rahman

Year of Call: 2001

Practice Overview

Tahmina is an experienced and highly regarded specialist Children practitioner. Her practice encompasses all aspects of both the Public Law and Private Law fields. Tahmina regularly acts for local authorities, parents, grandparents and interveners and her cases have involved representing parties where there have been babies/infants suffering fractures, serious inflicted injuries in 'witchcraft' or 'sorcery' cases, a child at significant risk from gangs and a case involving sibling sexual abuse. She also accepts instructions in financial remedy cases.

Tahmina sits as a Deputy District Judge authorised to hear civil cases and family cases, including financial remedy, public and private law cases, and as a Judge of the Employment Tribunal.

She is a LexisNexis Case Analysis Expert Panel Member.

She is the Bar Council FLBA representative (from January 2024).

Children (Public Law)

Tahmina has experience over many years conducting complicated care cases for local authorities, parents and children. Many of her cases involve a scrutiny of complex medical evidence. She led a junior and successfully resisted an appeal before the President in the Family Division in which the Court was asked to provide guidance on the duties of local authorities in care proceedings and in cases involving relinquished babies to notify fathers and wider family in cases where a parent objects: Re A, B and C (Adoption: notification of Fathers and Relatives)[2020] EWCA Civ 41.

Tahmina represented a local authority before the Court of Appeal successfully appealing against a finding that the threshold for making a care order had not been made out: K (A Child): Threshold Findings [2018] EWCA Civ 2044.

Children (Private Law)

Tahmina regularly represents parents and children in private law cases.

Family Finance & Property

Family finance and property – Tahmina has considerable experience in matrimonial finance cases, advising and representing clients in substantial asset and complex matters involving trusts, foreign assets, bankruptcy, inherited wealth and TOLATA claims.
